The screenshot shows a web form for creating a user profile. At the top right, there is a language dropdown menu set to "English". The page header includes the "First Nations, Inuit & Métis Program" logo and the text "Already registered? Log In". The form is titled "1 User Profile" and contains the following fields: "First Name", "Last Name", "Email", "Password", and "Confirm new password". Below the password fields, a green bar indicates "Password strength: strong" and provides instructions: "Password should contain minimum of 8 characters and 4 different character classes. Classes of characters: Lower Case, Upper Case, Digits and Special Characters." At the bottom right of the form, there are "Back" and "Sign Up" buttons. A blue arrow points to the "Sign Up" button.

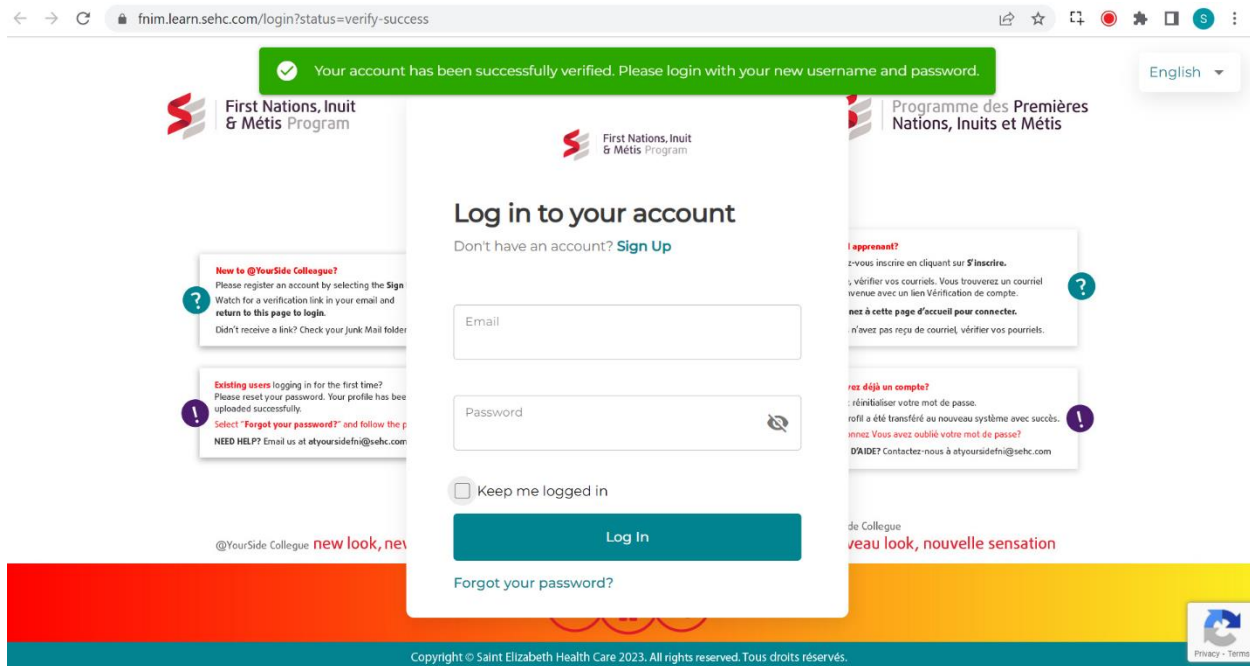

Then you will see this green message pop up, letting you know your next step is to check your email to verify your account.

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL "frim.learn.sehc.com/login?status=signup-success". A green message box at the top of the page reads: "Please check your email for a verification link to confirm your account." Below this, a "Log in to your account" modal is displayed, featuring fields for "Email" and "Password", a "Keep me logged in" checkbox, and a "Log In" button. The background shows a login page with various help messages in both English and French. A blue arrow points to the green message box.

Check your email. You should see this message. If you don't see it, check your spam folder.

Click on the Verify account link. It will take you back to the login page. Login with your email address and the password you chose for yourself.
